

1. Provide 5 social/professional issues in the workplace and present ideas on how you can address or mitigate them.

Social/Professional Issues	Ideas for Mitigation
1. Workplace Bullying	Implement a clear anti-bullying policy and provide training to employees on recognizing and reporting bullying behavior.
2. Gender Discrimination	Foster a culture of inclusivity and equality through diversity training and mentorship programs for underrepresented groups.
3. Work-Life Balance	Offer flexible work arrangements, such as remote work or flexible hours, to help employees manage their personal and professional commitments.
4. Ethical Dilemmas	Develop a strong ethical code of conduct and provide employees with training on ethical decision-making.
5. Stress and Burnout	Promote employee well-being through stress management workshops, employee assistance programs, and creating a supportive work environment.

2. Compare utilitarianism from ethical relativism.

Utilitarianism	Ethical Relativism
1. The greatest good for the greatest number.	Morality is relative to individual or cultural beliefs.
2. Actions are evaluated based on their consequences.	Moral judgments vary depending on cultural norms and individual perspective
3. Seeks to establish universal moral principles	Rejects the idea of universal moral principles.
4. Prioritizes the well-being of the majority	Recognizes that moral values can differ between individuals and cultures.
5. Can be adaptable to changing circumstances	May lead to inconsistent moral judgments based on cultural differences.

